GREATER DETROIT OLDTIMERS BOWLING ASSOCIATION SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM AND PROCEDURES

The Greater Detroit Oldtimers Bowling Association has established a program to further interest in youth bowling, foster a desire for better education for our youth, give the youth bowlers incentive to maintain their amateur status and to help enhance the image of the sport.

TWO SCHOLARSHIPS:

- (a) Two graduating male seniors will be granted a scholarship each year.
- (b) The scholarships will be for $500.00.
- (c) The scholarships will be paid directly to the school of choice. Each student will have a certificate to show that he has been awarded the scholarship so the school is aware that the Greater Detroit Oldtimers Bowling Association will pay the $500.00 to the school.
- (d) The recipient must request the funds within four years of graduation. If they do not, they forfeit the scholarship. Interest will not be accrued.

ELIGIBILITY AND PROCEDURES TO APPLY:

- (a) Any organized youth league member in good standing.
- (b) Graduating male senior
- (c) Individuals must contact their coach or the Greater Detroit Oldtimers Bowling Association, 25530 Van Dyke Centerline MI, 48015 (586-756-3240) to request application forms by mail. They will be sent along with an explanation for completion.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES:

- (a) The board of directors of the Greater Detroit Oldtimers Bowling Association will serve as the board of trustees.
- (b) The Scholarship Fund Committee will review applicants and make the decision and selection.
