SHANNON ROWE WINS MDUSBC QUEENS AT HAZEL PARK BOWL

Shannon Rowe of Detroit, bowling in her first Queens competition, won the Metro Detroit USBC Queens title on Sunday with a 217-181 triumph over Robin Orlikowski of Grand Rapids at Hazel Park Bowl in Hazel Park.

Rowe qualified 14th with a six-game total of 1,083 on games of 191-176-177-179-181-179 on a very challenging lane condition. In match play she defeated Kathleen Bishop of Westland 183-172, Darlene Dysart of Farmington Hills 189-171, 2013 Queens champion Michelle Keirns of Lansing 167-165 and Sandra Schultz of Macomb 212-199 en route to the championship match. She averaged 186.4 for 11 games of competition.

Orlikowski led qualifying with 1,242 on games of 215-178-212-159-233-245. She beat Kimberly Landon of Redford 207-168, Julie Oczepek of Reese 185-167 before falling to Sandra Schultz 206-182. In the loser's bracket she topped Brandie Reamy of Livonia 225-176, Oczepek again 235-192 and avenged the earlier loss to Schultz 190-169 on her way to the final match. She averaged 203.6 for 13 games.

Rowe took home the top check of $1,000 plus a tiara pendent necklace compliments of Chinn Jewelry. Orlikowski settled for $500.

Defending champion Angela Wilt finished 14th for $150.
