Sandra Schultz of Macomb won the Metro Detroit USBC (MDUSBC) Women's Series event Sunday with a 222-169 triumph over Lisa Bishop of Redford at Super Bowl in Canton. Schultz took home the top prize of $500, while Bishop settled for $250.

Schultz qualified eighth in the field of 28, with a four-game total of 781. In qualifying she had a pair of 168 games in games one and three, but made up for it with 224 in game two and a final game of 221 to grab the last match play spot. In match play she beat top qualifier Robin Orlikowski of Grand Rapids 226-206 and Kathleen Bishop of Westland 210-193 to advance to the finals. This was Schultz's third Women's Series title and moved her up to second place in the MDUSBC Cup standings with 312 points, only 11 points behind leader Bishop.

Bishop qualified second with 831 after a slow start with 176 in the first game. Once past that she shot games of 236, 196 and 223 to get the second spot. In match play she beat Sarah Dorow of Midland 218-202 and Amanda Barry of Clinton Township 212-166 on her way to the finals. Bishop maintained her lead in the cup race with 323 points.

In qualifying Amanda Barry shot her first career 300 game and the first 300 game of this year's Women's Series. The 300 propelled her to qualify third. In match play she won her first match and dropped her second one to cash for $100.

Top qualifier Robin Orlikowski paced the field by 109 pins over Lisa Bishop on games of 236, 227, 267 and 210 for 940.
